RADICALISM,

No. 8.

The President "for opposing, with manly firmness, invasions on the rights of the people," is now subjected to the worst passions of the dominant party. He who was sworn, in the language of James Madison, "to support the CONSTITUTION, which is the cement of the UNION, as well in its limitations as in its authorities," has been betrayed by a Judas Iscariot; has been sent from Caiaphas to Pilate, and is now about to be crucified along with the last remnant of republican liberty. Liberty, human, civil and religious, is but the dogstar of radical devotion. Where self and party are not visible, freedom is not worth the struggle. The nations' birthright, which gave to all the blessings of republican institutions, is now torn from more than eight of its glory, grandeur and greatness. millions of men, and trampled in the mire of radical usurpation and iniquity by the passions and incredulities of miserable leadwhat will be the ending? Will it be revolution around the sacrificial altar of expiring freedom? Or an uprising, en masse, of the outraged people to stamp down and out those radical revolutionists? This birthspirit in the people which alone can nourish, sustain, and direct all its movements." No words were ever more adapted to the times

"To be sure the Radical mind is dispassionate and Godlike! Their haste to rush through the trial and conviction of the first conduct]; let the people mark theirs. The cial and individual, into gall, bitter, people will be consistent, they must be con- greasy and green. Virtue is insulted. Insistent, or bring down upon themselves tellect is bullied. Patriotism is mocked, and their country, ruin black forever .- scourged and cursed. Fidelity is derided. Arise, then, ye men of unmixed blood, the | Honesty is bankrupt. Charity lies trampure blood of the country, and put down pled underfoot. Everything noble and this Radical platform. Be mindful of your good lies bleeding and persecuted. Nothliberty, in the last words of Pere Paul: ESTO PERPETUA-

may it be perpetual.

RADICALISM.

every man, who is supposed a free agent, every man's being allowed to speak his progress, social and political? Will you the polls yesterday. thoughts, and lay open his sentiments." vote for a measure to shackle your country But the radicals denythis right. The poor forever with that which is antagonistic to Kenansville (two days), Con. 195; Rad. 200, singular, this class of Democrats look to the scream, and the silvery Delaware, one hunman must not speak for himself, and if he you in the spirit and in the deed? Will Magnolia, ventures to do so, he must speak in tones you vote for a party that since its advent Hallsville, of radical trumpery. To be a free agent to usurped powers has kept your country Albertson, he must aid the radicals in abusing the full of tumult and civil strife? Will you Doles, President, in abusing the Judiciary, in vote for a party that will make the ÆTHIabusing everybody and everything that opes Antropophagi a race of cannibals, a has not the impress of radicalism. If the race of savages that was never found dwel- favorable. enjoyment of liberty consists, therefore, in ling with the descendants of Noah, and for voting, and many of these with the Conevery man's being allowed to speak his whatever of civilization they have acquired servatives. thoughts, and lay open his sentiments, not in this country, is entirely endebted to the substance of that liberty, but merely you; will you, we repeat, vote for a party its shadow, everywhere exists. The old which will make this race your superior? feeling is not dead yet. It must awake If you do, then go and dye your face, crisp from its lethargy, and strike strongly, and your hair, and become at once in reality. strike down this radical Ghoul that feeds what you have become in spirit, the kinky on human flesh, and drinks up human and woolly-headed, swarthy and thick-lipped blood; that is poisoning the air of free- negro. Go to their lairs, and seek not the dom, and chopping down the tree of lib-

If the white men of this State, of this and hold office to the dirty and ignorant country, are such dastards to permit this DUTCH and IRISH who come in swarms monstrous and effete fabrication of radi- to our shores." Almost their words vercalism to rule the destinies of this nation, then, indeed, do they deserve every insult, | from Rhineland, who have come here and every degradation that can be heaped upon | developed the grape growth of the country, | them. "If we countenance," says Jeffer- and who have done as much as any nation so long bled and suffered." But here is a hang-dog party, an upstart in politics, infamous for its political intolerance, despotic, madly through the land, tearing down every constitutional right and privilege. Its aim is to do this, right or wrong.

tion of this code they leave it to every free the present, the sun of this day will set on agent. They say : "We don't interfere with the "raw head and bloody bones" of our you, but you must do it." To secure this nation, on the grave of radical oppression. odious plan of theirs they have despoiled a radical fanaticism and filth. To him who. fair proportion of the free agents of these to the manor born, will act otherwise. States of their liberties, and have conferred may infamy black be his portion forever. those stolen liberties on a class that cannot, by any law or record, be called free agents.

Sumner, who has Sumnerized the Senate, could very well write: "It is republican plan of government than the easy to see that empire obtained by force decendants of those noble patriots of the is unrepublican and offensive to that first principle of our Union, according to which all just government stands only on the consent of the governed." This in Mr. Sumner is very consistent. Of course the consent of the States in the matter of negro suffrage has been asked! This is empire obtained by force, but it is not unrepublican !!! Radical logic.

RADICALISM.

No. 10.

" Our country !- 'tis a glorious land !" Why should not this country be ruled by white men? They formed it. They civilized it. They have governed it in the past, and they are bound to, they must, and shall rule it in the future. . What a history does not that glorious land show to every reader of every clime and State. Before the dark days of the "irrepressible conflict," it had almost reached the zenith

Prosperity was spread out as a mantle of munificence over every section, North and South. It shed rays of light divine on the ers. How long will this continue, and hovels and the miserable haunts of vice and crime. It was the bond of love, and held every heart together. It wept at the on the cradle, and cheered the home and social circle. It challenged the admiration glory, their praise and pride.

"Then none was for a party;

Then all were for the State.

where high-toned dignity and manners and are rampant in the land. All these, and officer and of our citizens. speech were demanded by the occasion, cares, and griefs, threaten us with ruin. the subject and the place, is an evidence of Woes incessant tire our hearts, curb our this. Wherever we turn and to whatso- aspirations, chain our actions, subdue our ever Senator or Representative, we see mirth, feed contention, foster hatred, nothing but three big letters, EGO-self. | breed contempt, restrain our noble im-Congress has marked its own course of pulses, and turn all our love, national, soing stands, or seems to stand, but lusty, insolent and ignorant radicalism. Look at that picture and on this! Which will you accept? Will you reject the cherished principles of your sires, and take Montesquieu writes: "In a free State unto your bosom the new-fangled and unconstitutional principles of this upstart habitation of the white man. The radicals say they "prefer to see the negroes vote batim et literatum. Think of that, you men son, "a political intolerance, as despotic, in the development of this country. Think as wicked, and capable of as bitter and of that, you emigrants from the Rhine, and bloody persecutions, we gained but little then vote for the radical party. Think of for having banished from our land that re- that, you Irish, whose ancestral blood flows ligious intolerance under which mankind in some of the best and bravest of our land. Think of that, you men from the Liffey and the Shannon, and vote for this radical party. Think of that, you Dutch and you wicked, and capable of every species of Irish, who have ever been foremost in the persecution, bitter and bloody, stalking fight for the Union, Liberty and Law, and vote for this radical party. Think of that, you "dirty and ignorant" Dutch and Irish, whose strong arms have done more to de-But then it says: "We don't do it; we velop the interests of this country-the don't force the people to accept anything; country of your forefathers here-and vote we point out, and leave the business to for the radical party. But the Irish are them for their sanction." Very kindly right, and so are the Dutch. They know said. Very magnanimous, too. It is left to how to vote, for what, and for whom. They the people of these States to sanction their turn away in disgust from a party that has treachery. It is left to a race of black men nothing inscribed on its banner but per- connected with those of the white men, to whom they have unconstitutionally jury and perfidy. They will ever adhere given the right of suffrage. The white and to those sacred and cherished principles of constitutionally governing people were not | the framers of the Constitution of this land. consulted. Instead of this matter being They owe it to the State in which they left to every free State, Congress takes it dwell. In this instance they owe it to North upon itself to legislate for States of which Carolina. If the native sons of North they know little, and for which they provide | Carolina will but prove true to their intera villainous code of laws. And for the sanc- est, true to the history of the past, true to

Reward of Justice and Impartiality. No one who knows our people will charge But the blacks are free enough to do the them with being partial to our present form aborted work of the radicals, no matter of government. The people of North Carwhat the country thinks and feels about the olina are not fond of military tyrannies, and none are more wedded to the simple Cape Fear, who did so much and suffered so much to hand down to their children the blessings of American liberty.

Law-abiding and faithful to their obligations-scornfully rejecting all propositions to sacrifice their own honor, submitting to injustice and humiliation when exercised by the strong arm of power under the show of legal authority-our people stand to day grander in their defeat and their honest

Conscious of their own integrity and the honesty of their purpose, our people cord and trouble between the races, and racking their brains to prevent reconciliation between the sections. In fact, the expeople are glad to recognize justice and effect. grave; it laughed at the altar; it smiled impartiality in their military rulers by a demonstration of their approval. right "must perish if there be not that vital of the world. Why was it? Because then Davis referred to our Post Commander, in his cloquent speech in the Theatre a few Faith link'd with Love and Liberty with Law." evenings since, in terms of commendation, Where now is love? or liberty? or law? while confessing to the merest personal than are those of Judge Story. Unless the Echo answers, where? If the politics of acquaintance, which met the hearty en- ant and delicate question. This relates not people, the white people of the country the past can show such a record, how can dorsement of the crowded house, and when rise to shield the brave and their liberties, they be compared to the detestible parti- the same enthusiasm was shown on Mon- here-but to the choice of the available they had better begin in time to dig their | zanship of the present? If the politics of day night, when Col. STRANGE again re- candidate. General Grant being the opown graves, or kindle a funeral pile around | the past have so guided the country until | ferred to Col. Frank in complimentary | posing candidate, the soldier vote of the which they can dance and sing the last sad it teemed with the richest, the choicest terms, was no endorsement of military requiem of the burning of our political and blessings that the God of nature could con- rule, but a fitting return for the justice, the result. And the question is, can that civil bill of rights, and then jump upon the fer upon her, how can they be rejected by impartiality and independence with which pyre for the flames to roast and lap up their any honest, liberty-loving citizen? Pa- that officer has conducted the disagreeable triotism was then such that men kept their duties to which he has been assigned. Col. Plato says, and so does Aristotle, that bonor bright, and when they were wrong, FRANK's heart must be of stone did he not "the law is the dispassionate mind and they fought to set it right. Their country highly appreciate these demonstrations. ingham the standard-bearer, for not only of the scene of the recent appalling acci-Godlike-Lex est mens sine affectu, et quasi was then above every other thing their Representing those who have returned our would his peace principles and his copper- dent on the Eric railway: manly submission by cowardly oppression, is abhorrent to our education and our judg-But the bright picture has changed into ment, he has so discharged his duty as to that they fought and risked life and limb more fitting or appropriate spot could not citizen of the land is an evidence of this. the bloodiest, the blackest, the most bitter | merit and receive the approval of his gov-Their abuse of the legislative power in. that has ever been presented to the people ernment and win the esteem of our people. felt and patriotically acted upon it at the ing precipice. To the right there is a vested in them, despite the many warnings of any age and of any country. There is It gives us pleasure to chronicle these of the people, is an evidence of this. Their no prosperity. Misery, distress, fierce con- facts, equally complimentary to the good propensity to blurt out every vile slang, tending wrath, and discord, and disunion, judgment and high-toned bearing of the Election Returns.

Our friends throughout the State will greatly oblige us and our numerous readers, by forwarding to us promptly the recollected returns for and against the Con-Governor, and whether Conservative or Radical candidates are elected to the Legis-of their attention to this matter.

Election Returns.

NEW HANOVER. Masonboro' Sound (two-days), Conservative, 43; Radical, 13. Federal Point (one ought to be concerned in his own govern- radical party? Will you affiliate with a day), Conservative, 18; Radical, 46. At ment. The enjoyment of liberty, and even party that has ever been the enemy of your Rocky Point the negroes had polled a few the Democratic candidate must go to the at their cigars or drawing consolation from its support and preservation, consists in genius; enemy of your race; enemy of your votes more than the whites at the close of soldier vote with an unstained war record, pipes. The steam engine tears through

Con. 48; Rad. Con. 48; Rad. 9.

SAMPSON AND ONSLOW. Comparatively few negroes

Cerro Gordo-Conservative, 187; Radical, 25. Twenty-two Conservatives were Election Returns, We are indebted to Capt. F. M. WOOTEN for the following election returns, received from the various precincts named, giving day of the election.

Richmond County.—Rockingham, 260; Laurel Hill, 290; Williamson's, 115. Robeson County .- Red Banks, 125; Lum-

Bladen County.—Bladenboro', 186; Brown Marsh, 132.

Brunswick County .- North West, 385. In this vote we learn the blacks have quite a majority.

Richmond County.

A correspondent writing us from Lilesville, 21st April, 2 o'clock, P. M., says : All quiet. The Conservatives are holding their own, though nearly all the negro vote has been polled to-day. The whites are waiting and working, and will make considerable gains to-morrow and next day. Niggers, white and black, are badly scared at our unanimity and earnestness. ral, but not allowed.

Negroes Voting the Conservative Ticket, From reliable source, we learn that large numbers of the negroes in Columbus, Sampson, Onslow and Wayne, are voting the Conservative ticket. Appreciating the fact that their interests are indissolubly their former masters, and still kindly disposed friends, these negroes have acted Dead Sea Fruits.

Radicalism tries every device to betray and deceive our people into the support of radical regard for the will of the people. their infamous Constitution. They have sugar-coated their bitter pill to make it palatable, but to no effect. Our honest, virtuous and proud people know too well what dishonor is embraced in their free schools-what burdens are to be carried under their equal and just taxation-what miserable and shallow treachery is contained in their measures for relief, lien law and homestead. They will not touch the unclean thing :

'Like Dead Sea fruits, that tempt the eye, But turn to ashes upon the lips."

Editorial Correspondence of the Mobile Register. The Late President Lincoln and Gen. Lee. What is Expected of the Southern Delegates in the Democratic National Convention ... Pendleton and the Presidency.

WASHINGTON, April 1. tation of the Democracy of the United States is that the whites of the South shall be represented by delegates in the National Convention. I have taken a good deal of pains to learn what are the sentiments of leading Democrats as to the action of the party, should it win the administration in the November contest, in reference to Federal policy toward the South. It was a question of the largest practical interest, that the war is over at last." Looking up poverty, than in their hours of success and whether, should the Democracy come into at his son Robert, he continued: "Well, power, it would leave the whites of the South to struggle as best they could out of front. The war is now closed, and we will the mire of Radical reconstruction, or whether it would at once lift them out by have been fighting against us. I trust that have submitted, under the protest of their the strong hand of Federal power. I get the era of good feeling has returned with scorn and contempt, to many petty acts of but one answer to the inquiry, and that is the close of the war, and that henceforth tyranny and villainy, upon the part of offi- the Democracy will be swift to sweep from we shall live in peace." Were President has been observed to be growing very reshave no fear as to the final result if times the statute book the whole system of mili- Lincoln not dead, he would, for such saycers who have, from time to time, been the statute book the whole special construction as utterly placed over them. We have seen and wit- null and void, and of no effect, and at once ness every day, here and elsewhere in to recognize the existing white Constituthose who have now the hypocrisy to prethe State, and in the South, officers of the tions of the Southern States, and re-admit the latter to their full equality into the United States government basely prostitu- Union. I must confess that I did not perting the functions of their offices for party sonally need such assurances, for when purposes, lending their aid to foment dis- policy and good faith both point to one course, the result is seldom doubtful. But some Southern friends did deem them necessary. I think that, before Congress adjourns, the Democrats in that body will ceptions to this course are so rare that our make further declaration and pledge to this

Influentially, the Southern delegates will have to play a very important part in the July National Convention. I am sure the When, therefore, the Hon. GEORGE feeling of the men of the South is to bear themselves with moderate reticence in that body, upon whose action so much depends. But a position of great influence will be forced upon them, as to advice upon, if not absolute determination of, a very importto the platform-for happily there will not be unmanageable diversity of opinion tion late great armies, now scattered in every State, will be a large element in settling be counted on for a Democratic candidate, taken from the wing of the "Peace Democracy?" To take an extreme case hardly any will be found to deny that it would be extremely hazardous to make Mr. Vallandneadism be vocalized from every stump but his actual hostility to the war. It won't disaster, so that your readers may underthe agent of a system of government which do to undertake a million of men who were stand its details. Had it been necessary in arms in that war, even by implication to select a place for this devil's work, a on the wrong side. No one knows this bet- have been chosen than Carr's Rock. The when, to avoid a conflict of opinion, he re- covered with spare shrubbery. To the left frained from pressing his undoubted claims | the beautiful Delaware, a quarter of a mile conscientious Southern man, grateful for bed, which lies equidistant between Pike sacrifices to his people, could have voted county, Pennsylvania, and Sullivan counagainst his right to sit, and yet the politi- ty, New York. There stretches the gigan cal effect of so just a vote would have been | tic shelf or gallery over-looking a sheer prehis rights to the cause of harmony .- showing along its narrow edge enormous turns from their counties, especially the ber of, and more enthusiastic friends, than port the fearful pathway traversed by the any other man. Everybody admits his trains. The passenger in looking out of stitution, for Governor and Lieutenant office. Independent in private fortune, he sation of awe as he looks down in the stu-We urge upon our friends the importance ded to this, his character as a man and a was 3.25 o'clock. The night was dark, the dent of the United States. But the outcry aginst Vallandingham, it is argued, would in their night attire-young and strong be raised in a lower key against Pendleton. men, weak women and trusting children. The idea of this class of Democrats is that In the smoking car a score of men puffing case for reflection to our people at home.

most carefully pondered. A Radical View of Impeachment. The Washington Chronicle thus expresses itself concerning the final result of impeachment:

The articles will be voted on separately in open court, and the general result will be in nowise affected by a failure to sustain any single article, the sustaining of any single article being equally as effective as though all were sustained. It is believed that the question of conviction or acquittal to evade it; some are making their fellowwill be finally decided by the middle of men work for them, others by living on 10 o'clock, A. M., and sit until 6 o'clock, Legislature.

The rascality of the radical system of representation in Connecticut, by the aid of which that party has secured a majority Fraudulent voting has been attempted by seve- in the Legislature, is shown by the following statement :

Bridgeport. 2,847 Burkhamstead 171 These towns all give a Radical majority. amounting in the aggregate to 358, while Hartford City placed at the bottom gives a Democratic majority of 470:

Total vote. No. Rep's. East Hartford..... 613 East Windsor..... 501 Enfield...... 603 Farmington 687 Granby 306-2,830

Thus 2,830 votes, where there is a radical majority, elect ten Representatives, and not work in this field must accept the pen-5,962 votes with a Democratic majority alty. It is an error to think that work was elect but two Representatives. That is a penalty imposed on man for having vic-On Marrying.

The Home Journal, which is deemed be selected because she has money, though a "suitable woman with money has an ad stewart in money, yet your own nature will but miserable appearance has been here also. We have, to-day, a man named Hall If this opinion is correct, and we do not also. We have, to-day, a man named Hall If this opinion is correct, and we do not also. ditional charm;" 4th, very old men should not marry at all," but if they will marry,

Mr. Beecher has been heavily assailed because at a public meeting in New York, some time since, he spoke well of the personal character of Gen. Lee. What will these assailants say about the opinion of * * The universal wish and expec- Mr. Lincoln upon Lee, and especially when they get that opinion from a source they must credit so unquestioningly, viz: a colored woman. Mrs. Kecklep, the colored whose State has lately administered such a dently an infernal scoundrel and an enemy servant of Mr. Lincoln's family, says that telling rebuke of this Senator's Radicalism, on the very morning of the assassination, President Lincoln took up a portrait of General Lee, scanned the face thoughtfully, and said: "It is a good face; it is the face he called the "ayes and nays" on all mo- Hall, the eloquent and able champion of of a noble, noble, brave man. I am glad tions relating to the admissibility of evi- Conservatism, caused the people to save my son, you have returned safely from the ings and thoughts as these, be denounced as a first-class, double-dyed-traitor by tend reverence for his memory. New York Times (rep.)

For the Journal. Meeting in Lower Black River District, At a called meeting of the citizens of Lower Black River District, held at Point Caswell on 18th intsant, Dr. J. R. Haws was unanimously called to the Chair and Jas McDuffie elected Vice-President, and D. P. Bland and Dr. F. Thomson appointed Secretaries.

The Chairman on taking the Chair pro-Mr. Ashe led the discussion in an able and forcible speech, which was closed by a most soul-stirring speech by Major Engelhard. After which the citizens passed the following resolutions: Resolved, That the people of Lower Black River endorse the nominations of the State and county and pledge them their support at the coming elec-

Resolved, That our thanks are specially tendered to Major Engelhard and Captain Ashe for the speeches which they have favored us with to

J. R. Haws, Ch'mn. D. P. BLAND, Sec'ys.

F. THOMSON. The Appalling Accident on the Eric Rail-

A correspondent of the New York

'World" gives the following description First let me describe the scene of the ter than Mr. Vallandingham himself. He road here runs along an abrupt and shelv-(August, 1866,) Philadelphia Convention, wooden height at an altitude of 100 feet, to a seat on its floor. Had he done so no wide, chanting musically over its rocky unfortunate at the time. Mr. V. yielded cipice of 100 feet on the Delaware, and Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, will go into the natural abutments of seamed and riven New York Couventon with a greater num- rock, as though they were placed to suphigh qualifications for the Presidential the car windows must naturally feel a senhas turned his leisure for years past to ac- pendous depths below. The river is subcount in studying the science of politics and lime, but terrific. It was at this point that government, and he stands before the coun- this accident happened this morning which try a ripe statesman, equal to the duties of has deprived twenty persons of their lives, the highest offices of statesmanship. Ad- and has seriously injured sixty others. It gentleman is lofty, unimpeaclable and heat in the train oppressive. In the three spotless. If he could be elected, say even sleeping cars a hundred persons were slumthose who question the expediency of his bering, a few in the passenger cars awake. nomination, he is all that the party could or dozing uneasily, and shifting about, want and the country demand in a Presi- as is common in a long railway journey. Many of those asieep in the berths were or Grant will win in such soldier States as the threatening space of the night, its iron Illinois and others in the West, which we front all aglow like the furnace of hell, its cannot afford to lose. And what is a little | brazen throat emitting a steady, panting Con. 175; Rad. 155. Southern influence in the Convention to | dred feet beneath, sings the same romance | Con. 130; Rad. 00. settle the question of expediency and policy. it did three hundred years ago to the Len-The Southern stake in the result is so un- nis Lenape, when locomotives were not .speakably great that these gentlemen be- The train was traveling thirty-five miles an lieve the South in the Convention will de- hour. Suddenly death bursts in with the cide the question with the maturest con- speed of lightning upon those 200 men, Our news from these two counties is very sideration, and under the gravest responsi- women and children. The engine and the bilities of a sound judgment. I submit the five first cars have passed safely over the culvert which crosses a quiet little creek My own feeling about it needs no con- that empties from a plateau eight feet cealment. While I believe Pendleton is the above the river into the Delaware. The trained statesman who would best fill the day car crosses a rotten rail, which snaps office, and while he is my first choice, the asunder, and, loosening from the five first fact that the man, who has lately made his cars and locomotive, is precipitated over mark so friendly to freedom, as commander the embankment, followed by the three of the Fifth Military District, was the best | sleeping ears, to the plateau above the Delfighting corps commander in the Federal aware. The grim terror, Death, is now army, would not cause me to hesitate one busy reaping his harvest. The four cars instant in giving him my most cordial sup- tumble over each other down the sloping, port. So, too, of President Johnson, if es- rocky wall among the loose masses of grancaping impeachment, and he should be eli- ite and quartz boulders. Every rocky gible, and by chance the Democrats should | boulder takes a life. The cars are smashthe number of votes cast during the first nominate him. This is a great question, ing and jumping from rock to rock, involving nothing less than the "deliver- and heads and faces are riven of beauty ance and liberty" of ten States, and to be and life, smashed, battered, crushed and defaced. Few are spared disfigurement or deformity, and thirteen lives are beaten out instantly. The air is freighted with groans, sobs and sighs of the quick and twenty minutes, by the clock. and liquified brains.

This is the law and penalty from which eat to the full, but eating without exercise sidered. is against the laws of nature, and very soon the stomach refuses to digest the food, the till 12 o'clock to-morrow. body is not nourished, and the man literally starves though he may feel no hunger The hand, the brain, the heart, must work to live. If you dodge the labor of learning lessons, at the same time miss the strength of intellect which mental work brings, and the mind will perish for want of nourishment. Thousands have starved their wits in this way, until they wonder how it is that others carry away all the prizes in

Many starve their hearts by never exercising them with noble emotions. Selfish ness eats into the nature like a canker and leaves the man hungry for affection; but love is the price of love, and he that will lated God's command. Man's nature is such that activity calls for employment that it may remain in health, and there can scarcely be a more terrible confinement, where the eye, the ear, and the hands good authority in fashionable circles, gives must remain idle. A slow, painful death a few rules for selecting a wife :- 1st, she will surely result. So then boys and girls, should be well bred, or of good extraction; strive to love work and not shun it.-2d, she should be at least ten years youn- Though you may be as rich as Astor or ger than her husband; 3d, she should not Stewart in money, yet your own nature will they may as well marry their housekeep- the Potomac is proposed to be held at Get- than the combined efforts of all who have Holden, would not secure the admission of ers, if they can get along with her connect tysburg in July, to celebrate the fifth antipreceded him. Col. Hall was listened to the State into Congress until after the next niversary of the battle there.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 16, 1868.

how the smaller men of the Senate labor mighty change. Friend Hall is anxious to to bring themselves before the country, as get hold of the Millionarie little-Field, but ting of the Court. Howard, of Michigan, has hitherto assumed the management of the case on behalf of the Senate—that is, dence; motions to adjourn, &c. Latterly, however, Drake, of Missouri, who never lets a day pass while the Senate is in legissoon live in peace with the brave men that lative session, without ventilating his in- afterwards presented with a bouquet by the tense Radicalism, even to the manifest dis- fair ladies of Elizabeth City-appropriate gust of the more dignified of his colleagues. tive, and on Saturday last he moved down to in the West are such as we have had reprethe front and took a seat near the mana- sented to us, and the miserable machine gers, and, as if not satisfied with the way the matter was going, took the small mo- age at the idea of "a better day coming, tion business upon himself, throwing the go to the polls and in one united mass dered faced Howard completely in the shade. clare that the offspring of the signers of The latter did not yield the petty leadership, however, without a contest, and this sons (tar heels included) of our good old pair of noble Radical brothers were fre- State will never submit to be ruled by men quently on their feet at the same time, who are aliens-nay, by a set of lousy, lazy, hailing "Mr. President," as the Radicals will insist on calling the Chief Justice. interest in North Carolina as a mouse has Drake being immediately in front of the in the Court of Heaven. Come up, ye "Chair," generally getting the honor of a Western Conservatives, and do your duty ceeded to introduce the speakers; when recognition, and Howard, looking quite and your sister counties of the East will chop-fallen, had to subside.

These men, and others of this class, seem to dislike the aspect the case has assumed of late, and Drake especially, looks most disconsolate; his settled expression being that of the gambler, who has staked his have taken no active part in the present last "red" on the hazard of the die.

testimony of the counsel for Gen. Thomas, in the case of his arrest by Mr. Stanton for Chief Justice, sustained by a vote of the articles of impeachment, based upon his desire to get the subject before the Supreme Court, and thus obtain a decision on Sunday's Post. its constitutionality of the law, and that his -one Carter. This Radical Justice stated, in refusing to hold Thomas to answer, in wished him held to bail or committed, and branch of Congress. It makes me sad to have to state this fact, but it is, neverthe-

was under examination, Butler arose and in article. the most solemn manner that his frogship In the first place, this anonymous writer with the look of a much injured man. ler read a note he claimed to have received and that he was disposed to brave allthis morning, in these words: "Prepare even, if need be, the anger and contempt to meet thy God, the avenger is abroad of his friends—to preserve that peace to and Hell is your portion." This was pro- his country. But when all chance of an honbably written by himself or procured to be orable settlement failed, then, and not till written, and read for effect, his object be- then did George Davis, on his return home. ing to manufacture as much sympathy as rise before his people in the City Hall, and will cover a multitude of sins in case he the approaching contest already flashing fatigued, it would be as well to let the case | country. The writer further says : go over. This brought Butler to his feet again, and for twenty minutes he belched out his objections at a furious rate. He begged Senators to excuse him if he spoke warmly-he was warm. Every newspaper outrages of his master." he opened contained instances of murder, arson and rapine all over the length and breadth of the South-his friends were be- when he penned the article, and until he

the fact that the managers themselves were | which Mr. Davis held as Attorney General properly chargeable with whatever there of the Confederate States, was unsought by was of delay. No evidence offered by the him, and never before, within or without defense was allowed to go in unchallenged. | the Confederate States have we heard either Hours and hours were wasted in fruitless his motives or his actions impugned. discussion, and the Court had just been It has been reserved for a base man and compelled to listen to a harrangue of a recreant Southerner to cast the first stone the dying; and the smooth Delaware flows quietly along, while it receives as tributaries the oozing, trickling rivulets of blood counsel, and suggested that it was im- private life. asked the Chief Justice if the "harangue" itself was not out of order?

that the Court meet in future at 11 o'clock, there is no escape. Thousands are trying A. M., and Sumner more impatient still, money inherited or accumulated in former P. M., each day until the trial was concludyears, but with no avail. If idle they ed. Both motions were objected to by Mr. starve in the midst of plenty. They may Trumbull, of Illinois, and were not con-

At about 6 o'clock the Court adjourned

For the Journal. Col. Hall in the East_The Canvass. ELIZABETH CITY, April, 15, 1868.

Messrs. Editors :- The lowering clouds of future degradation and anticipated misery in this section of the good Old North rebel Representative, ex-rebel Captain and State are being rapidly dispelled. To-day, ex-merciless slave-master to blacken the in this Radical County, the beams of sunshine and happiness have once more made their appearance, and so strong was the ef- the backs of his former slaves, will yet, feet upon the "disaffected," that things some day, cry aloud to Heaven against upon the whole, have assumed the ap- him. pearance of rejuvenation, and the most disconsolate even, smile with confidential joy upon the defeat of the dread monster made

OUR WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE. | marked attention than is usually seen at public political meetings-and happy are we to say that his splendid effort made here Messrs. Editors :- It is amusing to see to the ignorant "Rads" has wrought a represented in the galleries, during the sit- in passing over the field—he is not able to find little. The Gen. (?) from the record against him, furnished by Col. Hall, is evito the whole human race, save little-Field We think that if he had been here he would have felt much smaller. By tens of scores. aye, I might say, by hundreds, has Colonel their future disgrace by leaving the ranks of Radicalism.

The Colonel, at night, was complimented by a serenade from our Brass Band, and and eloquent replies being made to each compliment bestowed. The people need made for our destruction will be dead for ever on Thursday next. Let us take courthe Mecklenburg Declaration of Independ ence, and the native-born and true-hearted thieving rascally scoundrels, whom we know not, and who have about as much guarantee for all a splendid victory.

> J. T. P. C. C. For the Journal.

Hon. George Davis,

Messrs. Editors: I am one of those who political campaign-one who heretofore, as To-day there was a sharp discussion be- now, satisfied that my principles are made tween the managers and the President's up of the best of intentions and of a pure counsel, in regard to the admission of the love for my good old State, have never entered the arena where so many abler the violation of the tenure-of-office law, the ones than I have wielded the pen in beformer opposing it with all their might .- half of the noble principles of our party. It was finally admitted by the ruling of the Nor do I do so now for the purpose of advancing my political opinions, but merely By this testimony it was conclusively to defend the name of one of the purest of shown that the whole action of the Presi- men and noblest of North Carolinians from dent was, as alleged in his answer to the the malignant aspersions of the anonymous writer of the article which appeared in

I have, on more than one occasion, heard wishes were defeated by the refusal of the the name of George Davis mentioned by partisan Chief Justice of the District Court men of Northern birth, now residents of Wilmington, and leaders here of the Rewhich case a writ of habeas corpus would publican party, but never yet have I heard have been sued out, that he understood from them one word against either the fair very well why the counsel for respondent fame or the fair name of that gentleman. he would not lend himself to any such pur- The article referred to could scarcely, therepose. In other words, it did not suit the fore, have emanated from one of them. purposes of the Radical party that a de- Some recreant son of the soil, who has sold cision of the case by the Courts should be himself to the devil, heart, body and soul, had, and he would rather that this violator for the hope of an office, that his meagre the party should be embarrassed by an ad- abilities could never have obtained for him verse decision. The Judiciary of the Dis- in the ranks of the Conservative party, trict are as violently Radical as either must, therefore be the author of that infamous libel. There is but one such person in this neighborhood who has the ability. While one of the counsel above referred to as well as the inclination, to pen such an could assume, begged to clear his skirt by intimates that Mr. Davis was seduced from stating that this testimony was given "un- his duty by the "blandishments of power der the ruling of the Chief Justice." Mr. and the promised smiles of the secession Chase arose and with more animation than oligarchs." These are big words to be used I have ever seen him evince in any case, by a man who is not yet a Judge. He remarked: "It goes in under the ruling of knew them false when he penned them. the Senate of the United States," and then He knew that George Davis, as a member turning to the witness, said "go on, sir." of the Peace Conference which met in The Beast, not at all abashed, turned to- Washington City in 1861, was for the preward the most radical part of the Senate servation of the Union, and that he was for peace as long as there remained the At another point in the proceedings But- shadow of a hope that peace could be had. possible, for himself primarily and second- declare himself for a separation; not with ly for his cause, which he vainly supposes a gladness of heart, and with the fire of succeeds in having the President convicted. from his eye, but with a sad and subdued Mr. Stanbery was absent again to-day mien, as though his eagle eye had already from indisposition, and about 5 o'clock pierced the future, and beheld the sadness there was a suggestion that, as all were and desolation that war would bring to his

> "There was no measure of the infamous administration of that infamous government, to which Attorney General George Davis did not give his assent; and whenever ordered he manufactured a · legal " opinion to sustain the usurpations and

This is all simply a willful and malicious falsehood, as the would-be Judge well knew ing killed, and the claims of friendship can produce proof of one such instance as he mentions above, he stands before the Mr. Evarts, in reply, called attention to world a confessed LIAR! The position

Mr. Cameron, of Pennsylvania, objected at one whom his political opponents confess to be a man of a spotless and unim-As for the eighteen thousand prisoners whom this ex-Confederate alleges to have been murdered at Andersonville and Salis-Conness, of California, moved an order bury, we presume that matter to be beyond the ken of one who commanded a company of Confederate Artillery, and was moved a substitute that the Court meet at a member of a North Carolina Confederate From the judgment of this judge, who is not a Judge (and thanks to the white men of North Carolina, never will be), we appeal to the record of the past and to the action of the present. We appeal to every man in the city of Wilmington, both white and colored, to say if, during the war and prior to the war, the name of George Davis was not held in veneration in every hovel as well as in every parlor in North Carolina. To say if he was not, and is not now, in the truest sense of the word, one of natures noblemen, sans peur et sans reproche.

The attempt of the would-be Judge, ex name of George Davis, does not fall to tho ground, but recoils on the maligner himself, and with the scars which still mark Radical Feeling at Washington.

We learn from a respectable source that and intended to crush us-yelept the Con- the leading Radicals at Washington city stitution. We will not have it, because it feel no interest in the election of Holden is a very unusual matter for men to sign their or in the success of the new Constitution. own death-warrants. Gen. (?) Littlefield The reason for this feeling is very palpable. (first two syllables correct) has been here; They see very clearly, if the new Constitu-Judge r. p. dick, has been here; French, tion is adopted, that, by its allowing every of Washington City has been here; Mr. white man to vote in the Presidential elec-Nigger Hood has been here, and another tion, in November next, North Carolina man named jno. pool, with a white skin, would go overwhelmingly against the Radi-

(E. D.) This man Hall has accomplished doubt it, it is plain that the adoption of the A reunion of the officers of the Army of more good in this county by one speech new Constitution, and the election of by all colors, races and parties, with more Presidential election !- Raleigh Sentinet.